

Entrepreneurial Mechanics

How to build your success engine.

About The HubStudio

The HubStudio is a resource and development centre for working professional actors and creatives. Available anywhere, we operate both face to face workshops and online, with our own studio facilities in both Perth & Sydney. We use core performance skills to facilitate exceptional training programs for corporate clients using proven theatrical techniques taught by experts in performance training. Our coaches have taught hundreds of actors, and some this country's top artists.

The HubStudio Corporate Training is activity-based practical learning. We give constructive personal feedback in a supportive environment where the individualized key learning outcomes engage and inspire each participant to perform at their best.

At the core of our programs are:

Authenticity	Leadership
Presence	Prosperity
Vitality	Engagement
Confidence	Effective Communication
